DC Building For April Hits 'Surprising' Total

Daly City building for April hit a surprising $673,374 total valuation, despite some earthquake apprehension and tightening of home financing.

A total of 101 building permits, 80 of them for new dwellings, were taken out at the office of Building Inspector George Hopman.

Dwelling construction made up the lion's share of the total at $644,142. Sixty-four of the 80 dwelling permits were for Westlake homes.

The month's total was nearly five times as great as that for the previous month, $136,715 on 28 permits, which was one of the slowest building period's in Daly City in the last eight years.

The April figure also topped building for the corresponding month in 1956: $498,982 on 68 permits.

Hopman's office declared the figure "surprisingly good," considering the nation-wide building lull and the March 22 quake, which some felt might crimp sale of homes in this area.

Breakdown of permits and valuations for April:

New dwellings, 80, $644,142; dwelling alterations, 15, $24,845; detached garage, 1, $687; commercial alterations, 2, $2800; signs, 2, $700; demolition, $200.

'GO AHEAD' GRANTED FOR W'LAKE SIGNALS

Assemblyman Louis Francis wired THE RECORD today from Sacramento that the California Highway Commission has allocated funds to install traffic signals and to channel and widen Alemany boulevard at five intersections between Dorchester drive, Eastgate drive and Junipero Serra boulevard in Daly City.

Total cost of this project is $50,000. The state's share is $31,000, the city's is $19,000.

This action by the Highway Commission culminates the campaign for the installation of traffic control lights which began last year. Francis' help was requested last July by the Daly City Council, Westlake Improvement association, and several civic and parent organizations after the State Division of Highways refused to install these signals, despite heavy vehicular traffic at these intersections. The city and these organizations protested that the signals were necessary for the safety of school children and pedestrians.

The local legislator then asked for an official survey of the vehicular and pedestrian traffic situation on these intersections. The survey proved the signals were needed and the State Division reversed its opinion and approved the installation of the traffic control signals.

Francis also announced that the Division of Highways today approved the allocation of $1,291,659 for the grading and surfacing of 2.2 miles of divided highway and the construction of a bridge and equestrian undercrossing between Manor drive at Edgemar on Route 55 to Coast Highway.

Seven Hurt In Serra Car Crashes

Seven persons suffered minor injuries and eight cars were damaged Wednesday night in two traffic accidents on Junipero Serra boulevard which occurred within three hours of each other.

First mishap happened about 7 o'clock, when a northbound car driven by Vera Ann Veilone, 1160 87th street, rammed into the vehicle ahead of it, driven by John Egleston, 75, of Campbell.

Impact of the crash, which came near the Westlake avenue intersection, sent Egleston's car barreling into two cars parked outside Shoe Fair.

Rushed to Junipero Serra hospital by police ambulance, the Campbell man said the jolt paralyzed him, causing his vehicle to strike the parked autos. Fortunately, occupants of these They're cleaning up in Broadmoor. The respectable citizens, that is.

In the annual clean-up week just culminated, Broadmoor Property Owners association President BOB BUCHANAN reported the junk business on the upswing. Last year 16 truck loads of junk were picked up from Broadmoor homes. They got 25 loads this year.

Robbery Suspect A Terror Afoot Or 'Horseback'

An armed robbery suspect led Broadmoor and San Francisco police a merry chase Tuesday and added a new criminal charge to his billing in the process.

San Francisco police sought Earnest Martin Ravazzini, 30, alias Theodore Earnest Martin Jr., a Brisbane mechanic, for questioning in connection with several recent armed robberies in which a motorcycle was used as means of escape.

They placed a stake-out at Thompson's Used Car Lot, 7733 Mission street, Colma, where Ravazzini was employed.

But Ravazzini, returning to the lot after testing a car, spotted patrol cars, abandoned the auto he was driving and took off down Mission on foot, leaving his own auto at the car lot.

Stake-Out Again

Broadmoor police placed a stake-out at the car lot later that afternoon, hoping Ravazzini would return for his vehicle.

At 11 p.m. an acquaintance of the suspect, Robert Alcorn, 24, also a mechanic from Brisbane, stopped off to pick up

Drizzly Weather Fails To Dampen P. O. Opening

Some 150 persons, including several dignitaries, braved drizzly weather Wednesday to participate in hour-long opening ceremonies for the new post office branch and department of motor vehicles office in Westlake.

The rites were preceded by a recreation of the original "stage coach" mail run to San Francisco, which included a special pick-up of "gold" at the Westlake Bank of America and an attack by highwaymen on Alemany.

Key speaker for the dedication was "Ralph T. Wills, deputy executive assistant to the postmaster general.

Other speakers introduced by emcee Pete Markovich included local postmaster Vin-

Experts To Tell Needs Of Schools

Dan Dawson, member of a Stanford survey team that has been studying curriculum in the Jefferson Elementary School district during the past year, will report on his findings at a special meeting here May 13.

The report is being sponsored by the Citizens Committee for Better Schools and parent attendance is urged. The meeting will be held in Jefferson High school auditorium, starting at 8 p.m.

Dawson's report will include a comparison of the local school district's academic standing with national norms. Particular emphasis will be placed on arithmetic studies, since the survey group has just finished its study of this facet of district education. Dawson will also comment on the social studies survey now in progress.

I. Q. level of students, as compared with national norms, will also be discussed.

Dawson will answer questions from the floor on the status of district education.

Members of the school board and administrators are expected to be on hand for the meeting.

Renew Talks For City Dump Site

AUTO VICTIM, 2, IN COMA FOR EIGHTH DAY

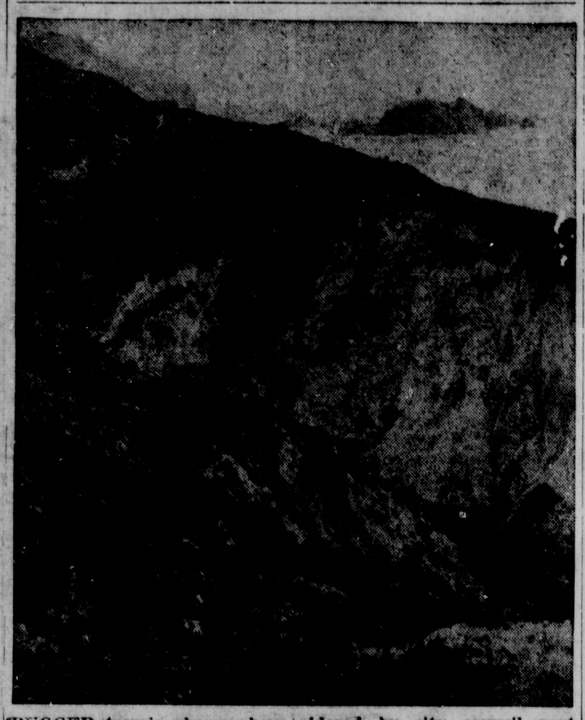
A two-year old Daly City girl who was struck by a car last week had still not regained consciousness at press time yesterday.

Darlyne Schultz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schultz, 548 Atlanta avenue, has been in a coma more than a week, after being hit by a car while crossing the street in front of her home.

She suffered a fractured skull when an auto driven by Charles Becker, 18, of San Francisco, struck her as she darted in front of the vehicle.

Her parents, who have maintained a vigil at her bedside since the accident, said she was "holding her own." She has been on the critical list since almost immediately after the mishap.

The attending physician had still not decided yesterday whether surgery would be necessary to save the tot.



RUGGED terrain shown above is at approximate site where Daly City Scavenger Co. plans to establish a fill and cover dump site. Contract for operation of the dump will be considered by city council next Wednesday. Under proposed terms, property would revert to city after 20 years.

Land Would Revert To DC In 20 Years

A contract between the city and Daly City Scavenger Co. providing for a fill and cover dump site near Mussell Rock will be weighed by the city council next Wednesday.

The scavenger firm, which has negotiated unsuccessfully for more than two years to obtain a dump site, will pay a reported $25,000 for the land, owned by Col. John MacReady.

It is the same coastal site which the city annexed last year with intentions of buying the land for a municipally-owned fill and cover operation. Negotiations bogged down over price.

October 1 Ban

The local scavengers, who have been dumping at an open site in South San Francisco, face an October 1 ban on dump burning. The transaction with MacReady was agreed to after the Daly City garbage firm was informed last week that South San Francisco was raising the local company's per-day dumping rate from $20 to $40.

Mayor Joseph Verducci said City Attorney Frank Blum and Conrad Reisch, attorney for the scavengers, were preparing a contract which would provide that the scavengers turn the fill and cover site over to the city after 20 years. The land would be used by the city for recreation or other municipal purposes.

Rates Not Affected

The contract to be considered Wednesday will have nothing to do with garbage rates, since the scavengers' contract with the city still has 2½ years to run.

Scavengers will own the Mussell Rock site outright, but the contract under preparation now will establish municipal

YEARBOOK 'CRISIS'

Jeff's 'Tom Tom' Won't Be Heard: Funds Short

Crippled by lack of sufficient advertising to make up for inadequate student response, Jefferson High students this June will not have their regular annual issue of "The Tom Tom," student year book.

Decision was the only "way out" Friday as faculty advisor Louis Martin explained the "setback" to the senior class after he and Principal John Mongan reviewed the situation with high school trustees earlier in the week.

Operating in the red on the yearbook the past few years because of mounting production costs, school officials and students this time decided is was impractical to continue putting out the yearbook under present fund needs.

A Substitute

The 300 Jeff seniors, however, will have a token memento instead, as they unanimously voted to go ahead with a less expensive supplement, about 16 glossy pages in all, with a hard padded cover. This "substitute" may not be ideal, but at least it gives graduating seniors something to build their memories around.

Martin, bemoaning the crisis but figuring the supplement was the best answer, said that about 600 students had pledged they'd buy the yearbook this year, but this would raise only $375. And since advertising by local firms to help pay the costs of the yearbook proved way below par (Westmoor also got little response from advertisers for its first proposed yearbook), the only reasonable avenue was the supplement.

Seniors will have priority on the supplement, with just enough issues planned to cover the senior population. In past years, the whole student body was represented in "Tom Tom" coverage.

"If we would have had another 400 kids willing to buy the yearbook, we could have swung the deal," Martin lamented. "Many of our students said they'd even pay more than the $3.75 per copy for the yearbook — just to make sure they got the real McCoy.

The magazine-like supplement, being edited by Totem Pole editor Alda Caggiano and a staff of 10, will go to press about mid-May, with copies available a week before the June graduation.

Low Bidder

Martin reminded that contract for the supplement was

Reservoir Job Hits Snag Again

Repair on Daly City's 1,600,000 gallon Westlake reservoir was delayed again this week as a temporary wooden reservoir still failed to pass a water purity test.

The 28,000 gallon wooden cistern, which will be used to provide water while the earthquake-cracked reservoir is being drained and repaired, showed an undesirable bacteria county of 5, two over the safety limit, following results of a 24-hour test this week. Last week the tank "flunked" the test with a 16-count.

Public Works Director Otis Calhoun said if the count was verified after another 24-hour

Duties Of Trustees Defined

By Fran Prager

When Johnny and Susie wave goodby to Mother and set off for school in the morning, they are enfolded by an impressive institution, our public school system. There are 78,725 Johnnies and Susies in San Mateo county's 29 school districts. They attend 135 schools, where they are taught by 3412 teachers and other "certificated personnel."

The boards of trustees that act as your and my agent in "running" these schools handle an aggregate yearly budget of $64,123,926—to mention just one of their duties.

What else do they do and what is their historical significance? The local school board is a uniquely American institution. The first one originated in the seventeenth century when Massachusetts colonists were working out the framework of American public education.

Toward the end of the 19th century, with the growth of cities, many school boards became so large they were unwieldy. This led to a decrease in size until today most have five or seven members, although a few small districts have only three members.

Can't Act On Own

While the school board represents the community and is in office to carry out the community's wishes, it cannot act entirely on its own. It is an agency of the state and its powers are limited by State laws and often by municipal regulations.

Briefly, here are some of its

Broadmoor To Elect Thursday

Broadmoor Preperty Owners association members will elect four directors and name new officers for the coming year at their annual meeting next Thursday at Broadmoor community center. Meeting starts at 8 p.m.

Terms of three appointees, Don Williams, Virginia Voreyer and Louis Starr, and regular term of Mary Coppola expire.

All are expected to seek election. After ballotting for the four directorships, the home owners will then vote again to select officers from the nine-man board. Bob Buchanan is currently serving as president of the group.

In order to encourage more participation by Broadmoor residents, a letter has been sent to all homeowners advising them of the election. In addition, forms are being supplied so persons may indicate their candidacy for office in advance.

Residents must be present in order to vote for directors.

Other business on agenda for the annual meeting:

1. Report on association business during the past year.
2. Treasurer's report on the annual audit.

OLPH Cutie Rules Spring Festival

Cute Nadine Magnault from Our Lady of Perpetual Help school will reign as "Queen of Daly City's Spring Festival," on Sunday, May 19, in War Memorial building.

Mayor Joe Verducci pulled Nadine's name out of the hat Friday afternoon as 12 of the community's daintiest girls waited breathlessly.

Miss Magnault's court for the big affair will consist of the following young beauties:

Joanne Price, Crocker; Gerry Lynn Galindo, Woodrow Wilson; Nancy James Witt, Westlake; Sheryl Ann Carlascio, Thornton; Judy Calcogno, Benjamin Franklin; Susan Chiappari, Jefferson elementary; Donna Gertz, General Pershing; Romona Lemon, Colma; Gloria Rice, Garden Village; Judy Majourau, Oympia, and Barbara Bennett, Our Lady of Mercy.

The festival, beginning at 1:30 p.m., is jointly sponsored by Daly City Department of Parks and Recreation, DC Garden Club, a coordinating PTA Council, and mothers clubs from OLPH and Our Lady of Mercy.

Entertainment will be provided by Shipley and Smith, and Hypress Studio, with musical selections by the Daly City municipal band. Shipley and Smith will present variety acts, and Hypress Studio will offer singing and instrumental numbers.

SPRING Festival Queen Nadine Magnault (in front of beaming Mayor Joe Verducci) and her "court" of these Daly City cuties will preside at the May 19 affair in War Memorial building. Miss Magnault, of OLPH school, was chosen Friday as an out-of-the-hat selection. Other tots (left to right): Joanne Price, Gerry Lynn Galindo, Nancy Witt, Sheryl Ann Carlascio, Judy Calcogno, Susan Chiappari, Donna Gertz, Romona Lemon, Gloria Rice, Judy Majourau and Barbara Bennett. In back row is Mrs. C. M. Yohn, president of DC Garden club, which is sharing festival sponsorship with city department of parks and recreation, coordinating PTA council, and mothers clubs of OLPH and Our Lady Of Mercy.

'Millionaire' In B'moor Has Laugh On Thief

A husky thief's bid to make off with more than $1000 in valuables, including a million dollars in Chinese paper money, was nipped in the bud late Monday night by Broadmoor and Daly City police.

Victim of the big burglary, which ended when the culprit leaped over the fence in a Westlake backyard and escaped, was Mrs. Thelma Fugazi, housewife at 832 Larchmont drive, Broadmoor, whose husband is at sea with the merchant marine.

Returning from a two-day vacation, Mrs. Fugazi found her residence completely ransacked Monday night about 10:45. She phoned Broadmoor police, and Chief Ray Savage and Officer George Carleton sped to the home. Taken in

MASKED BURGLAR SENTENCED: 7 YEARS TO LIFE

Broadmoor's masked burglar William Golden was delivered to San Quentin Monday with the not-so-pleasant outlook of from seven years to life in the state prison.

Golden, an ex-convict, was captured outside a Broadmoor home January 2 brandishing a butcher knife and wearing a Halloween mask.

He was sentenced in municipal court Monday to an indeterminate term, after pleading guilty to attempted burglary. His case will come up for review by the adult authority in one year for establishing length of sentence.

most important powers: As the direct governing body of the district, it has the right to determine the program of the schools under its control. It establishes and approves or discontinues courses of study. It fixes the length of the school year. It sets policies for admission and promotion of students. It is responsible for enforcing compulsory attendance laws.

It appoints school employees: administrators, supervisors, principals, teachers, custodians, bus drivers. It acquires school sites. It constructs and maintains buildings. It can establish libraries and playgrounds. It buys school supplies and equipment.

It is the legal representative of the people in the expenditure of school funds. It sets the school tax rate. It has the final decision on whether to hold special tax elections and bond elections. It keeps records. It publishes an annual report.

Powers: 2 Kinds

Legally it has two kinds of powers: mandatory and permissive. It must enforce attendance laws. It may declare a holiday if a good reason exists.

Experts seem to be agreed that the most important single decision a school board has to make is its choice of a superintendent of schools. He is the board's executive office; he carries out the board's policies and decisions. The relationship between the board and the superintendent is the vital link in the operation of the schools.

Next to hiring an able administrator and planning sound school board policy, the school board's next most important job is said to be to keep the public informed on what the schools are doing.

The next article will deal with the ways the PTA and the community can cooperate more effectively with school boards.

the drawer-spilling raid were a movie projector, a camera, three watches, two pair of binoculars and the million in Nationalist currency.

Not too puzzled about the time of the haul because the intruder dripped candle wax all over the house, Savage and Carleton soon got a hot lead. Daly City cops answered a call about 11:15 from John Martin, 1136 South Mayfair, saying that a suspicious man was lurking in the back of 1128 South Mayfair. And so the pursuit began.

The culprit, who Martin said appeared to be trying to tie a garden hose around a laundry sack he used in the Broadmoor invasion, spotted his viewers, then sailed over the fence onto Skyline.

The raider, described as a hefty six-footer and wearing dark clothing (age undetermined because of darkness), left police holding the bag, containing all of Mrs. Fugazi's property except two watches. Total haul would have been about $1080, Savage said, but the theif wound up with only about $130, value of the watches.

Savage said the fleeing filcher entered Mrs. Fugazi's home through an open kitchen window.

Only a portion of the scavengers' total purchase will be included in the agreement with the city. Land not included in the agreement will be held by the scavengers, even after the 20-year period. Reisch explained that MacReady did not wish to sell just that portion of land useable for fill and cover operation and that, therefore, the scavengers had to purchase the entire "package."

the abandoned car. He was promptly confronted by police. Alcorn said Ravazzini had asked him to pick up his auto. He told Broadmoor officers that Ravazzini was probably at his Hillside home in Brisbane, so San Francisco authorities were notified again.

The two law enforcement agencies converged on Ravazzini's Brisbane home, but he was not there.

Lo, He Returns

Within a few moments Ravazzini came roaring up to the residence in a motorcycle he had "borrowed," espied police and flipped a quick U-turn, heading up a dirt road, crashing through a wooden fence and plummeting down the other side to Bayshore Freeway, where he made a clean get-a-way on foot, after abandoning the "bike."

Because Ravazzini took the motorcycle from a Brisbane acquaintance, and because the owner did not authorize the manner in which the vehicle was "borrowed," a charge of grand theft will be filed against the speedster. San Mateo county sheriff's authorities will also enter the picture, since the alleged theft took place in their jurisdiction.

"Our chances for a yearbook next year will be very good, however," Martin offered. "Student body response, of course, is a major factor."

A major assist with the project next year will come from a new teacher, to be hired by the district to supervise the yearbook operations.

Westmoor principal Glenn South has similar woes as Ram student body plans for their first yearbook, "The Rampage," also have been ruled out.

Had the yearbooks been okayed for both schools, Jefferson would have lost about $1400, and Westmoor $400.

Invocation was led by Father Richard Power, blessing by the Rev. Roy Milam and benediction by Rabbi Leo Stillpass.

Councilmen Del Wilson, Sanford Vickers and Micheal De Bernardi were in attendance, as was Judge Thomas L. Bocci. Half a score of post office officials from the regional division also put in appearances.

The post office opened for business Monday, while the DMV branch has been in operation for two weeks.

Murphy said all went smooth at the new post office branch, which now houses the mailing division. The Daly City office will continue as the main branch and will be headquarters for the executive division. Murphy said the transfer of some duties to the Westlake branch would not in any way effect the time of mail delivery in other areas.

The Westlake post office branch was formerly located in rented headquarters on South Mayfair avenue while the DMV moved from its former offices on Mission street.

Officer James Bergstrom cited Miss Vellone for following too closely.

At 9:20 p.m., officers Richard Sims and George Brooks investigated the second accident, this time in the northbound lane near the Junipero Serra - Knowles avenue intersection.

Responsible was Adeline Mendes, 31, who rammed her vehicle into a car waiting for a red light, driven by Fred Tyrrell, 45, of San Francisco. Two other vehicles were jolted in the chain reaction.

The woman, who with her passenger, Roy Quanstrom, 38, of 44 Station avenue, appeared to have been drinking, was very uncooperative and claimed she couldn't remember anything, officers reported.

Miss Mendes and Quanstrom, and occupants of the two other vehicles, Tyrrell and his son Frederick, 12, and Lawrence S. Wade and his wife, 44, of Petaluma, all were treated for minor hurts at the hospital.

Police are investigating the later mishap prior to filing charges. Quanstrom, they indicated, admitted that he and the woman had "several drinks" before the accident.

In the "more serious" category, breakdown showed seven license suspensions, two revocations and four motorists placed on probation.

DC Power Station Operator Is Booked As Drunk Driver

A 50-year-old Daly City power station operator was booked on suspicion of drunk driving here early Thursday morning after he was found apparently "passed out" in the front seat of his car on Mission street.

Officer Phil LaBruzzo booked Harold S. Marsh, 131 Bismark street, when he spotted the latter parked near Bismark, with the vehicle's lights on and the motor running.

LaBruzzo said Marsh was unable to alight from the car and then flunked a sobriety test at Junipero Serra hospital. Judge Thomas L. Bocci set bail at $500.

OAKLAND POLICE CAPTURE PAIR IN DC STICKUP

Two young stickup artists who made a $200 raid at the Flying A station on Mission street April 4 were nabbed Monday by Oakland police and are being held for a series of Bay area jobs.

Arrested after admitting their roles in the Daly City caper were Elmer White Eagle, 25, and Richard Wright, 18.

The pair pulled into the Flying A station here April 4 in a 1955 sedan, forcing attendant Robert Chandler to open the till by flashing a .45 automatic.

Earlier that same evening, according to Inspector John Walsh, the bandits had "cased" Westlake Flying A, but moved on after purchasing $2 worth of gas and a quart of oil. At the time, the Westlake attendant thought there was something "suspicious" about the customers.

Wine, Lewd Art Cause 2 Arrests Near Playground

Two men were arrested by Daly City police outside of Lincoln playground Thursday night after officers found them and a 15-year-old girl parked in a car which contained an open bottle of wine and nine lewd photographs.

Ben J. Mejorado, 27, a tanner, of South San Fracisco, is charged with furnishing liquor to minors and keeping the girl out after curfew.

Judge Thomas L. Bocci found the second man, David J. Ghiossi, 18, a junk dealer, guilty of drinking while under the age limit. Ghiossi was given a choice of five days in jal or $35 fine, with 10 days to pay.

The girl, who told police neither man harmed her, was released to her parents after lengthy questioning.

The announcement was made by the California School Employees' Association, which is sponsoring the event.

Ecker will compete with more than 100 other contestants in the written and skilled bus roadeo tests.

Purpose of the roadeo is to give recognition to and further the professional driving skill and traffic safety knowledge of operators of vehicles which transport students to and from school.

Organizations cooperating with the sponsor in conducting the roadeo are: California Highway Patrol, Firemen's Fund Indemnity company, East Bay Chapter of National Safety Council, and the California Automobile Association.

Brisbaners Back Sierra Point Span

Brisbane Homeowners association Tuesday night endorsed Sierra Point as location for a southern Bay crossing.

The matter was brought to the floor by John Brannin. Sierra Point crossing won the board's unanimous approval.

In other action, the Brisbaners:

1. Recommended that the executive group attend the Brisbane Water district meeting to determine what the district will do on the sanitation problem.

2. Heard report from President David With on the Brisbane - South San Francisco annexation study. With said that various civic groups asked to participate in the study had given negative replies.

3. Heard proposal from With to establish an alliance of property owners' organizations in Northern San Mateo county. His plan was referred to the steering committee.

4. Heard talk by Thomas Noonan, candidate for the Jefferson High school board of trustees.

WHAT THE OTHER CITIES SAY

"The best government is the government that is closest to the people."

This is an excerpt from one of the more than 50 replies received from charter government cities in this newspaper's current survey to inform citizens of charter government's performance in other communities.

Greatest single advantage cited in most of the replies from charter cities was the "home rule" idea: the molding of a form of government that conforms to the wishes of the people, the physical needs of the community, without being subject to the constant legislative whim of the state under general law.

Roseville declared, "Our city has prospered and progressed under the charter. There is greater coordination of departments and functions and quite a bit of freedom and independence from the restrictions of state and county jurisdictions, more freedom of action."

Echoing sentiments in dozens of other letters, Torrance representatives said, "The charter benefits the city because it enables the citizens of the community to have the kind of government that they want both in form and organization."

Santa Cruz stated, "The electors and taxpayers of the chartered city assume direct responsibility for the organization and scope of their government. All basic changes in governmental structure must receive their direct attention and approval."

Inglewood said, "Basic advantages of the charter government are the home rule features and that a charter may be drafted which fits the particular characteristics of a city, thus enabling more effective efficient city administration."

In Modesto, "the city (in spite of phenomenal population and area growth) provides more and better services with a substantially reduced tax rate—both literally and in relation to assessed values."

Modesto also cited the "degree of home rule and self-determination that is not possible under general law."

Said Tulare, "The greatest advantage of the charter form of government for cities is that it gives the city more home rule. Various duties and responsibilities of the city officials are outlined specifically, and the individual city does not have to worry constantly about current legislation similar to what is being introduced this year, whereby 7000 legislative bills could change many basic procedures of the unchartered cities."

However, as an Oakland official pointed out, "The mere adoption of charter government will not insure economical or efficient administration for a municipality."

But judging from the comments of officials from several dozen California cities who now operate under charter government, an intelligently drafted charter can provide the best government and one that is "closest to the people."

Resident Explains 'Apathy' Attitude On School Boards

Dear Editor:

Your note in "The Town Record" regarding the PTA president who knew nothing about the school board election May 17 is not surprising since we found that less than one in 10 people had any idea of the functions and duties of school boards and less than one in 100 knew where or when school board meetings were held.

In the series "PTA Official Outlines Trustee Job," you might ask your correspondent to explain the provision in the Education Code which reads: "Except when other wise authorized by law, every school district shall be under the control of a board of school trustees," and the statement on page 18 of the full report on the White House Conference on Education which reads: "The relatively autonomous local school board composed of laymen is as characteristically American as the decentralized pattern of school administration. These boards, which are usually elected by popular vote, and which generally operate independent from other governmental agencies, keep school authorities directly responsible to the people."

This, too, (p. 3. Biennial Survey of Education in the United States, 1950-52, Chapter 2) should be elaborated if citizens are to understand their responsibilities: "The actual operation of schools is generally the responsibility of local school systems in the various states. The local basic administrative unit or school district is an area that is organized as a quasi-corporation, under the jurisdiction of a board of education responsible for the administration of all public schools in the area. School districts provide the machinery through which local control of schools is exercised, and are largely responsible for the location and size of schools, the types of educational programs and services offered, and the amount of financial support to be provided locally . . ."

You might also run a series to explain: "The local school budget is the instrument thru which the educational program is planned and, to a large extent, controlled. For this reason procedures for preparing and adopting school budgets are of paramount importance . . ." (p. 16 Public School Finance Programs of the 48 states" Circular No. 274, Office of Education, U. S. Dept. of Health, Education and Welfare.)

If school boards are autonomous and their policies determine how funds are budgeted, how do they then place the responsibilities for problems in the educational program on the school administrators? What can the citizens do when they find the school boards are spending "10 to 20 per cent more for school construction than it is necessary to spend" (from the findings of the State Legislature as told by Senator Dolwig at an election rally) and "student performance below the national average" as told by Superintendent Weibel to the League for Better Schools in the fall of 1955 but the "local school budget is the instrument through which the educational program is planned and controlled?" How do the citizens become "guests" at school board meetings? How does "the Bill of Rights" affect the authority of the State Department of Education?

These are the stumbling blocks that seem to persist through every organization and committee I have worked with in consideration of school problems.

Sincerely,

Mrs. W. H. Beck

SENIOR BRUCE FREELAND

Jeff High Claims Top Scholar

By ROY HURLBERT

Bruce Gordon Freeland. Remember the name. Smart boy. He's going places.

Reference is to a 17-year-old Jefferson High senior, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Freeland, live at 156 Irvington street, Our Town.

Sammy Davis has a rival as "Mr. Wonderful." None other than young Freeland, who has just about walked off with the gamut in honors at Principal John Mongan's book factory.

Fine Record

To date, lanky Bruce, he's 6-4 and a trim 185 pounds, has earned at least three top awards. He moves to University of California this September to major in pharmacy. No financial problem. The scholarships take care of the money department.

Bruce, you see, is about as versatile as they come, academically and socially. And he's just another sample of the kind of students the Jefferson Union High School district is turning out. Credit runs from the superintendent on down.

Always a top student at Jeff, posting an almost solid "A" average, Bruce hit the jackpot this semester.

As of this week, the tall lad has received the National Merit Scholarship (sponsored by Upjohn Pharmaceutical Co.) a State Scholarship Award, and a Bank of America achievement plaque. No small tasks, considering the flock of bright ones competing in these individual tests.

The Topper

Best of above awards, of course, is the National Merit honor. About 162,000 students from 12,500 U. S. High schools were considered. Best 800 were the winners, with several of the nation's leading firms donating the funds. Figure it out, and you'll see that means about one high school senior in 1800 gets the honor. Longshot odds. But Freeland has the stuff scholars are made of.

No one could be more deserving. Bruce has helped his finances along by working part-time for King Regal Station, in the premium department. He combines school preoccupations with a heavy slate of club and community activities.

Here's how some of his time is consumed:

1. Junior and senior councilor of International Order of Mission DeMolay. He'll be a master councilor this summer.

2. Member of Westminster Fellowship—a church group for teenagers.

3. Veteran of almost four years in high school dramatics. Had lead in "Man Who Came To Dinner."

4. President of Misbe-Haven Teen club — local group with membership of about 150.

5. Photography is key hobby. Photo editor of school annual for second year.

6. Went out for Jeff track squad. No great shucks, but a competitor.

7. Student body commissioner of entertainment.

All told, an all-around youngster.

Mom Speaking

"Bruce has always been energetic and first in initiative," his happy Mom, Carol, told THE RECORD. "He's very serious, but still finds time to get out of the convention bookworm category."

Dad Freeland, George R. by name, is an operating engineer for a Burlingame company. Bruce has an older brother, Ted, 23, Jeff grad and Korea vet, and a sister, Georgianne, 13, an eighth grader at Colma school.

Typical Daly City family. But a little bit special, you'll agree.

SIZEABLE SUM—Bernard Etcheverry (left), president of Westlake Business and Professional association, turns over checks amounting to $705 to Cass Norton, president of Westlake Improvement association, for latter group's fund drive to aid families hardest hit by the March 22 earthquake. Drive has netted close to $7000 to date and donations are still being received.

List Deadline For Quake Aid

Earthquake victims have until May 15 to file applications with Westlake Improvement association for financial assistance.

The association announced the deadline this week, as donations hit nearly $7000 in cash and pledges in the "neighbor-fund drive" launched April 18.

Alyce Shea, association secretary, said some 50 applications for assistance had been received and many more were expected by deadline day.

The applications will be screened by a committee of church and civic leaders to determine eligibility.

Last day for making donations has been set for the same date as the application deadline, Mrs. Shea said.

The association will discuss the fund drive at their regular meeting next Monday night.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

One View On Brisbane School Tax Hike Hassle

The disturbance which disrupted the open house night at Natalie Lipman school April 23 was created by a small minority group of citizens who use as their platform their desire to keep taxes down. This is a praiseworthy goal on the part of any group, but in this case it has lost all sense of reasonableness by confusing the issues of taxes with the issue of the need for more adequate school facilities.

Fortunately, this group consists of the same type of small minority in every community who, for reasons best known to themselves, kick up disturbances and cloud issues around projects which are for the betterment of their communities.

How much of a minority this group commands will be demonstrated without question on the election May 17.

Tragic Point

The tragic point of the controversy is the fact that the anti-tax leaders have done themselves and their followers a grave injustice by failing to make a conscientious study and evaluation of all the circumstances which make this temporary tax necessary.

The results thus far have been confused thinking, mixed up or manipulated statistics, false claims regarding amounts of taxes and consequences of voting "yes," prepostrous suggestions such as building partitions in the Natalie Lipman multi-purpose room to create four more classrooms; and suggestions that the Brisbane school basement be partitioned off for classrooms.

What is not explained is how access will be obtained to boys and girls toilets which are located in the same room.

Statements to the effect that luxuries such as multi-purpose rooms, home economic facilities and manual training are not needed for our children.

The tax opponents have, in the space of a few weeks, set themselves up as experts on school construction and administration. They have managed to achieve this status by making a few trips to the county superintendent's and the district attorney's offices.

While our county officials have been most cooperative and given their accurate answers to questions they have been asked, they have garbled or misinterpreted the information so badly it is no longer recognizeable.

Key Factor

The key factor here is that all of the information they have sought is available as a matter of public record from the school files.

A simple request made at any of the school board meetings would produce the desired information, but these folks are rarely seen at school board meetings.

The tax opponents make the complaint that they do not receive proper respect from the children of the town. The answer to this is that they must not be acting in a manner to inspire respect. Further, they have placed themselves in the position of attempting to deprive the children of educational facilities which are their right.

My platform for re-election is to stand solidly behind our school administrations, to work in harmony with a unanimous school board for the betterment of our children's education, at the lowest cost humanly possible.

JESD TEACHERS TO BE QUERIED ON 'TURNOVER'

Citizens' Committee for Better Schools Monday named a four-member committee to prepare a questionnaire for teachers and former teachers in Jefferson Elementary school district in order to objectively determine reasons for the high teacher turnover here.

Trustees last week authorized the citizens' group to prepare the questionnaire, with professional help, on condition that the committee present the questionnaire for board approval prior to sending it out.

As explained by Lawrence D. Freiberg, chairman of the citizens' group, the questionnaire will cover such factors as pay, increments, location of district, work conditions, status of teachers with husbands attending colleges and universities, promotion and tenure.

Teachers in the district and those who have left within the last five years will not be required to sign their names when returning the questionnaires to the committee.

Superintendent H. Z. Weibel and trustees have given full endorsement to the committee's project in an attempt to evaluate the seriousness of teacher turnover.

Recent report of the committee to the board indicated that the JESD's 1956 turnover rate of 34.6 per cent was slightly higher than at least eight other comparable local districts.

Committee drafting the questionnaire consists of Dr. J. J. Eiler, University of California faculty; Robert Smith, San Francisco State faculty; Mrs. Betty Brawley, housewife, and Margo Westgaard, San Francisco State librarian.

JESD Trustees Okay 'Cheaper' Fire Insurance

By a 4-1 vote, Jefferson Elementary trustees last week approved a five-year insurance contract with A. M. Bender & Co., which will save the district about 17 per cent in expense compared with its present fire insurance arrangement.

The majority action thus calls for termination of the present fire insurance contract with Peter J. Markovich this July. Markovich's firm handles all district insurance at present.

Assistant superintendent David Shapiro said that under the current arrangement, the district is paying out about $12,000 for its five-year insurance coverage. The 17 per cent saving would be realized under the tieup with the Bender company, submitted on a quotation basis, Shapiro indicated.

Lone opposition was voiced by trustee Joseph Lewkowitz, who argued that the fire insurance move should have been put out for bids.

In other main business last week, trustees endorsed a resolution as requested by Assemblyman Louis Francis to urge legislature approval on a four-year state college in San Mateo county.

Superintendent Terms Bond, Aid Ballots 'Crucial'

(Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of articles by Superintendent Edward D. Morgan, stressing the importance of the May 17 bond and state aid election in the Jefferson Union High School district).

On Friday, May 17, voters of the Jefferson Union High School district will cast their ballots in a special high school bond election.

Upon going to the polls each voter will receive a ballot containing two propositions.

PROPOSITION No. 1—will call for a "Yes" or "No" vote on a local bond issue in the amount of $2,900,000.

PROPOSITION No. 2—will call for a "Yes" or "No" vote granting permission for the district to borrow up to $8,000,000 from the State of California.

Inasmuch as the above-mentioned sums will, if the May 17 election is successful, come to the district over the next four years, a "Yes" vote on May 17 will not increase the present high school taxes.

Enrollment Boom

At the present time there are 2,000 students enrolled in the Jefferson Union High School district; during the next seven-year period enrollments will climb to the record breaking number of 6000. This 6000 figure is based on children now enrolled in the elementary school districts lying within the Jefferson High school boundaries.

If the May 17 bond issues are successful, the monies requested will be used during the coming years to construct two new high schools, one to be located in the Sharp Park area and the second in Linda Mar. In addition to these projects the second increment of Westmoor High school will be constructed and the Jefferson High school plant will be modernized.

In order for the local high school district to become eligible for the $8,000,000 state loan, it will be necessary for the voters of the district to approve the local $2,900,000 bond issue by a two-thirds majority vote. A two-thirds majority vote is also required on the state loan issue.

The Consequences

In the event that the local bond and state loan issues are not approved, it will be necessary for the district to stay on double sessions and within a few years to go on triple sessions.

The question has been asked: "Why does the district need such a large sum of money?" The monies are designed to only meet the minimum educational needs of the youngsters now enrolled in elementary schools. The sums do not take into consideration any growth which might be experienced by the high school district in the coming years.

Time Element

A second important point to bear in mind is that it takes approximately four years to plan and build a high school. The sums requested are based on present day cost of living. Little has been budgeted for any material, labor, or equipment price increases.

If the voters of the district do not approve the May 17 election, they will have very little tax reduction. High school bonds already outstanding will require a 35 cent tax rate. A "Yes" vote will cost the average home owner $1.80 per year.

RED CROSS REPORTS 21 HERE GET AID

San Mateo county chapter, Red Cross, reported today that it had approved applications of 21 Daly City residents seeking financial aid because of damages suffered in the March 22 earthquake.

A chapter spokesman reminded local residents that it is still not too late to make application for financial assistance. The Red Cross emphasized that relief given is "an outright gift, not a loan."

Applications may be made by phoning DI 2-4561 or writing to the local chapter at 1449 Bellevue avenue, Burlingame.

SECOND 'BIGGEST' AFTER-JOLT HERE CAUSED NO FUSS

Old hands with the shakers by now, Daly City residents and neighbors weathered Monday night's second big aftershock with nothing more than casual concern.

City officials reported no damages and few calls came in to police and firemen from frightened folks.

Monday's jolt, second most potent aftershock in intensity since the March 22 disturber, struck a Richter scale reading of 3.25. The March 22 rocker hit 5.5, while the top aftershock registered 3.5.

'Wild Bill' Revives Old West Here This Weekend

'WILD BILL' TUCKER . . . . fabulous fellow

Gun-toting ex-vaudevillian "Wild Bill" Tucker, self-tagged "Last of the Frontiersmen," will give a flock of local kids the real dope on the old days and old-timers this weekend when he puts on exhibitions at Gateway Chevrolet company, 7400 Mission street.

A Buffalo Bill-type, bewhiskered gent who says he's "old enough to have known the legendary figures of the West when they were fading out," cross-countryman Tucker's repertoire has captivated youths and adults the past 25 years.

Press Clippings

Star of TV, radio and the stage (with a station wagonfull of legitimate references), "Wild Bill" is more than worth the price of free admission.

He'll perform (explode) Saturday from 10 to 12, and from 1 to 6, and on Sunday afternoon from 1 to 5. Gateway is footing his appearance, and the Chevvy folks expect the place to be crammed.

Tucker, who came to this neck of the woods to visit Wyatt Earp's grave in Colma, has tramped to just about every corner and nook of this country spreading the gospel of the Old West. And when it comes to tales, he can't be topped for authenticity. He bumped elbows with all the saddle greats, among the many—Earp, Buffalo Bill, Annie Oakley and Frank James, the brother who led poor Jesse to his grave.

Gun Genius

"Wild Bill" will bulge out eyeballs when he displays his versatile possessions and abilities. Main interest for onlookers should be his priceless collection of 131 shooting irons—guns to you—that date back to when heck was a pup. One gun is 98 years old. Tucker won't fire the weapons, but he'll show how to use 'em with razor-like accuracy. Some scribes have dubbed him the fastest gun alive—even though Bill owns up to about 65 summers.

The gun department could consume a whole day. But, on a tight schedule, wise Tuck will squeeze in many of his other talents. He's capable of a car-load of famous yells and sounds, simulating hurricanes, air battles, jungle noises, Tarzan burps, ducks, monkeys, elephants, popeye, and you name it.

True Tales

Add to this spectacle a few hair-raising yarns on the old prarie days, and it'll be an outing the kiddies won't be likely to forget.

Final thing we'll say for this old master. "Wild Bill" knows his business. He's been up and down the path of experience many times. And you can believe every word he says.

Born in Nebraska, where his father was a frontier judge, Tucker learned the ropes the hard way.

And take it from him, the road was rough to hoe in those days—when men were real men.

Oakland 'Brass' Hire Jeff Tutor For Summer Camp

By Lola Lee Bermudez

City fathers of Oakland have selected Daly City's Llewellyn Reese, Jefferson High civics teacher, as new manager of their municipally-operated Feather River camp.

Similar to San Francisco-sponsored Camp Mather, the Feather river site opens June 22, with the season running to August 19. It affords a variety of vacation fun for the whole family.

Reese, 212 North Mayfair avenue, is highly qualified for this summertime post. His experience includes serving as principal of Coronado Evening High school, vice principal of Quincy High, coaching in four prep sports, playground director duties here and in Brisbane and Bayshore, and athletic director of Broadmoor Youth association.

Reese's wife, Patricia Ann, will accompany him to Feather river, where she will act as camp hostess and dining room manager.

In addition to housewife duties "Patsy" has worked as a service representative for Bell Telephone company and formerly managed a large apartment hotel in Coronado.

The Reese's have two children, Richard, freshman athlete at Westmoor, and Barbara, in kindergarten at Westlake elementary.

Sailor Don Fanthorpe Ends Orient Cruise

Sailor Donald B. Fanthorpe, interior communications electrician third class, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Fred Fanthorpe of 787 Mayfair avenue, is scheduled to arrive in San Diego this Saturday, following a seven-month cruise to the Far East aboard the tank landing ship USS Rice County.

Local High School Students Serve 'Disaster Lunch' At Hillsdale

Donning chefs' caps and aprons, Jim Ahern, Jefferson High, and Gary Twitty and Dennis Hill of Sharp Park, Westmoor High students, served a "disaster lunch" in the cafeteria of Hillsdale High last Saturday to 350 high school students, members of the Junior Red Cross from 13 Bay area chapters, who met at a regional conference to discuss ways in which juniors may assist adults in Red Cross disaster relief work. Mike's Restaurant in San Mateo, a member of the San Mateo County Restaurant and Tavern Owners association, prepared the lunch which was arranged for by Andrew Castle, field representative of the association and vice chairman of the local chapter's disaster food committee who resides in Daly City.

The morning session of the conference included talks, a Yuba City flood film and a skit produced by the students, depicting ways in which they may serve in a disaster.

Noon recess featured demonstrations put on by Company L, 159th Infantry Regiment, National Guard of Daly City, with Lt. Robert Reid, M/Sgt. Roy W. Misner, Cpl. Richard Burr, Sp/2 John Murray and Pfc. Bradford Turcott III showing uses of a mobile field kitchen, and mobile radio and phone equipment; Sheriff Earl Whitmore and his "crash wagon"; and a helicopter demonstration by Chief Pilot Jackson Hughes of Rick Helicopters Inc.

The afternoon session was a panel discussion led by disaster chairmen from two Red Cross chapters and two JRC members of the Pacific Area Advisory Council which answered questions from high school students from all Peninsula schools.

SIXTH GRADE
MRS. GOLDBERG

Our class visited the United Air Lines maintenance base. We learned many things about airplanes and how they fly. This has helped us in science.

Kenneth Klassen has made a telegraph key and sounder, and Richard Arroyos and Ronald Sampino made an electromagnet to help widen our knowledge about different types of communication.

April 29 through May 3 is Public School Week. We hope many people will come to see how our classes are conducted and what we do in school.

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

PL 5-0679

At this point, mothers are busy vacuuming up the odd bits of broken egg shell, chocolate crumbs, and cellophane grass which still seem to be around in one or two corners, and the familiar routine of school clothes, books, lunches and time-to-catch-the-bus is back. Parents are sighing in a relieved fashion, and teachers are just sighing.

Birthdays still are popular. Up on South Mayfair, Steven Mayo turned 9, and had quite a group to help him celebrate. Guests who enjoyed games and refreshments were Jackie Murrish, Owen Marion, Mike Fagan, Robert Morris, Paul Chernock, Terence Nihil, Robert Dwyer, David and Mark Johnson, Donny Mitchell, Linda Banker, Teresa Mayo, Brenda Banker, Jimmy Fithian, Allen Whiteker, Davis Holland, Jeffrey Jacobs, David Lowy and Bruce Mayo. Highlight of the afternoon was a trip to the Westlake playground, to work off youthful engergies and work up a good appetite for birthday cake.

On the distaff side, Phyllis Chiosso had a 8th birthday, and a feminine contingent descended on her Foothill home for a happy afternoon. Nancy Dethlefsen, Ginny Jones, Karen Guymon, Debbie Leech, Claudia Guz, Colleen Barrett, Chrissie Mitchell, Celia Andro, Sherry Bechtold, Gail Land, Elaine Chiosso, Kathy Mahoney and Georgianna Livingstone were the guests.

Jackpots

Nine of them—that's how many nickel jackpots tumbled into Marguerite Smith's surprised hands in Las Vegas recently when she and Fred went up for a weekend. They stayed at the Sahara, but saw the new Tropicana, and it is as fabulous as everyone says it is. Eddie Fisher was the headliner there, and others they saw were Lillian Roth at the Sahara, and Nat Cole and Sue Sarson at the Sands. They also saw Jerry Lewis and his wife, and Horace Heidt, in the course of the evening. Those jackpots didn't all stay in LV, though. When the Smiths and their friends flew back, Marguerite brought $46 in silver dollars home to Southgate with her!

Danny Driscoll over on Louvaine had a 10th birthday turning up, so he had a baseball party with, appropriately, nine guests. Joining him for an outing to the South San Francisco park were Dale Atwood, Mike Dulac, Teddy Cordano, Dennis and Philip James, Tommy Cheskey, and Jimmy Sheilds. Danny's parents, Al and Nicky Driscoll, went along as umpires.

Teresa Berning tells us that Lee, once a towhead who used to walk by our house on his way home from elementary school, is doing very well in his Army photographic work in Germany. He is also doing portrait work on the side, and came in second in a Munich photography contest. When he gets back home to Maddux, eventually, he plans to teach small sister Joanne to speak German! Lee himself speaks and writes it well, as it is necessary to him in his work.

The Indian Guides workshop last Saturday was a great success, and everyone came away with new ideas and concepts. Garden Lane's Ed Raymond gave an excellent talk on the Adventurers, and Park Manor's Walt Erickson and son Dale had a crafts and hobby display that drew one of the largest crowds. They had an arrow-making display which excited everyone's interest.

Hither and Yon

Friends and neighbors are glad that Meridith Orloff is back home on Stewart after a short sojourn in the hospital, and that she is feeling much better.

Mark the calendar — if you don't, you'll never keep the assortment of bake sales, bazaars, festivals, dances, and special events straight. Girls Scouts at the War Memorial this Saturday afternoon; Presbyterian bake sale at Westlake market that same day; Scout-O-Rama tickets making the rounds; May festivals at the schools in the offing.

Two new kitten families have arrived in the Villages. Vi Murphy's cat, Winston (!) had five, named Kate and Duplicate, Pete and Repeat, and Spy. Harold Chinevere's cat, Gertrude, had four as yet without names.

Sorry to report that little Charlotte McCall of Sweetwood had a bad time with pneumonia and asthma, and had to spend a time in the hospital. Kevin and Kirk Whitehead were two of Beechwood's mumpy citizens for a while, but are back to size again.

Dr. Jon Karlsson of 90th street is well on his way to being a pediatrician, with graduation coming in June. Right new he's interning at Children's hospital. The whole family is happy that the years of studying are almost over.

The mass of lilies, azaleas, and rhododendrons at King's this year were beautiful, and gave the market shoppers something to look at and enjoy while waiting in the long, long pre-Easter lines. They didn't lose their beauty and when carried off singly in the arms of husbands to grace the homes of lucky Village wives Sunday morning, or when wheeled away in shopping carts in company with coffee and baby food.

Among all the Village Easter egg hunts, one of the happiest was the one Phyllis Brown gave at her Washington street home for Brownie Troop 78. Troop leader Harriet Hagerman and friend Wanda Milani came along to help. There were games, too, and refreshments—of course! In addition to being the troop's assistant leader and doing many other things, Phyllis is now working at the drug store.

Hilda Stettler's sister, Lydia Bolliger, and her two children came down from Santa Rosa to visit Hilda for a couple of days. The house on Midway was bulging with children and conversation.

Just to prove that mothers can have birthdays and enjoy them too, Maurine Guymon celebrated hers by being entertained at a luncheon given by Vivian Leech. Of course, the regular Foothill crowd of Fran Dethlefsen, Ruth Jones and Mabs Guz had a finger in it too, and two of Maurine's friends from San Francisco, Carma Baker and Eunice, made it a very happy crowd in all.

Travelers

Dorothy Croley and her father, Holmes Mitchell, are two of the most-traveling Madduxites we've seen in a long time. Holmesy took off first. He and a friend, "Chris" Christopherson of Stockton, had a trip to end all trips. They went to Palm Springs, Disneyland, Las Vegas, Tiauana, Encinada, and various points along the California coast. They also visited quite a few missions. All this took two weeks, and the two of them had a wonderful time.

When Holmesy got back home, Dorothy took off southwards for a week or so. Most of the time was spent at Disneyland, and she brought back one of the most comprehensive descriptions we have ever heard. She went with her brother, Calvin Sassarini, his wife, and their three children (the Sassarinis live in Sonoma) and they stayed at the Disneyland hotel, which was close and convenient, and equipped for children. Dorothy says that though the rates sound high, it's no more expensive than staying out of town farther, having to buck traffic on the freeway (which is awful) and pay entrance fees every time. The group didn't miss a thing, and the ship ride and the ride through the rainbow maines were outstanding, to them. The books of scrip seems to be the best way to handle entrance rates, rides, etc.; we've heard that from nearly everyone. Disneyland is one place where everyone wears play clothes, munches popcorn and hot dogs, and leaves any and all cares behind at the gate. That is for us!

'Grandpa' Silicani Hits 81st Season

"Grandpa" Fred Silicani, 1608 Bryant street in Colma, had a blissful 81st birthday on April 24 as his many offspring feted him with a party.

The honored gent has one son, six daughters, 17 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Might qualify for local grandfather of the year.

Proud wife Pauline, Fred, relatives and friends enjoyed two big cakes and ice cream.

YOUR CHILD DESERVES A HIGH SCHOOL EDUCATION

BUT -- unless the following receive a two-thirds majority of "YES" votes

Proposition 1 -- (Local Bond Issue--$2,900,000)
and
Proposition 2 -- (State Loan not to exceed $8,000,000)

Schools with a present enrollment of 2,000 students will, IN JUST 7 YEARS, be triple sessioned with the 6,000 children new attending our Elementary School.

Vote YES May 17

Under present State laws a "YES" vote will NOT INCREASE YOUR PRESENT HIGH SCHOOL BOND TAXES BY EVEN 1c!

This is our problem—let's face it together and work between now and May 17 in order to assure our children of an adequate High School Education.

Vote YES On 1 and 2 May 17

Mongan, Morgan Address Lively Snell PTA Confab

By Mrs. Roy Rosendahl

"Try to communicate with your child," stressed John Mongan, principal of Jefferson High, at the meeting of James L. Snell PTA last week, "and be a listening post, not just an advisor. If this relationship is established early and maintained throughout childhood, many of the harrassments and problems of adolescent years will easily be overcome."

In his talk "Helping Your Child to Grow Up," he emphasized the significance of young people attaining emotional independence and satisfying intellectual curiosity.

High school was the subject of the evening. Also directing the thoughts of the parents to the future, Edward D. Morgan, superintendent of the Jefferson High School district, related the immediate need for additional high school facilities. The present student population, 1950, is expected to triple in the next five years. Anticipated enrollment this fall of 2400 cannot be handled unless the bond election of May 17 is successful, Morgan declared.

He considers this election a "golden opportunity" for the community, since the taxes will not be increased and long-range planning can be accomplished, he said.

Gales of laughter greeted past and incoming officers on stage as they provided the second half of the program for the evening. The skits were characterizations and impersonations of PTA people and events, set to music of popular records. A hilarious "take-off" on PTA ladies and "Song of the Hot Dog Sale," with background music of Elvis Presley's "Hound Dog," was enacted by Mrs. John Mitchell, president; Mrs. Fred Smith, vice president; Mrs. Walter Erickson, recording secretary; Mrs. Joseph Elliott, corresponding secretary; Mrs. D. M. Magnusson, financial secretary; Mrs. Robert St. Clair, treasurer; Mrs. LeRoy Larsen, historian, Mrs. Irwin Cohen, parliamentarian; Martin Orloff, auditor, and chairmen Mrs. Alton Swedberg and Mrs. William Rice.

Corsages and humorous mementoes of the respective offices were presented to incoming officers by Mrs. Larry Green, past unit president, who conducted the installation.

Mrs. Irwin Cohen, president, announced that Snell PTA again will have a summer recreation program in the schools, coordinated by recreation chairman Michael Orlich.

Civil Defense in Action will be the keynote of the last meeting on Tuesday, May 21, to be held at 7:30 p.m. in the multipurpose of Garden Village school. The program, commencing at 8:30 p.m., will feature noted speakers from San Francisco and San Mateo county, to help formulate plans for this community. Public is invited.

Newly elected officers are: Mrs. Arthur Huelse, president; Don Lesher, vice president; Bernard Gerdes and Fred Schwieckhardt, honorary vice presidents; Mrs. Albert Race, recording secretary; Mrs. Andrew Castle, treasurer; Mrs. Joseph Doyle, financial secretary; Wallace Reid, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Don Lesher, historian, and Mrs. Lawrence Sarrubi, auditor.

By Alda Caggiano

Next week, May 6 - 10, has been designated "Spirit Week," during which students should show united school spirit by participation in various special activities. A kickoff rally will be held Monday, dramatizing, by skits, the week's activities and also honoring the baseball and track teams. This first day also has been set aside as "Hello Day." Programs will be distributed to students, who in turn should introduce themselves to others, preferably unknown to them, and obtain their signatures. Tuesday will be boys' "Twirp Day," and on Wednesday a spirit dance will be held before school in the cafeteria. Girls' "Twirp Day" and a "Color Rally" will be added attractions of the week's events.

Freshman Frolic

The freshman class are busily engaged in preparation of their dance, which they will sponsor this Friday, and their assembly, which they will hold May 23. The dance, entitled "Springtime in the Orient," will take place from 8 to 11:30 p.m. in the cafeteria. Highlight of the evening will be two dance contests, winners of which will receive $5 certificates. The class officers, Barbara Giannini, Dolores Spinetti, Nila Johnson, and Nancy Reginelli, head the planning committee of the assembly, "The Changing Times." Assisting students inpreparation and organization for their assembly are Miss Insel, Mr. Manson, Miss Aslanis, and Mr. Mostowski. Among those expected to participate in the actual presentation are Barbara Marsigli, Mike Maffei, Ronnae Amundson, Gail Smith, Gail Arteseros, Maureen Beecher, Jodi Spencer, Gerry Salzman, Gary Cinti, Steve Lyon, Roger Stall, Art Hedvall, and Olin Craig. Nancy Reginelli will emcee the function.

Jeannie Radoff has been chosen graduation speaker from a list of three finalists, including Ray Navarra and Bruce Freeland. Tryouts were held April 23 in the auditorium, and the judges consisted of Miss Wood, Miss Hall, Miss Seaton, Mrs. Green, and senior class officers Lee Casentini and Dave Harris. Topic of Jeannie's speech is "Why an Education?"

Senior Ball

Tickets for the senior ball, "Almost Paradise," to be presented at the Colonial Room of St. Francis hotel May 24, are now on sale for the price of $3. Music for this lavish affair, beginning at 9 and lasting to 12, will be provided by Charlie Stern and his orchestra.

Gary Ryan has been selected by the faculty from a list of three juniors nominated by the class to represent Jefferson at Boys' State in Sacramento this summer.

A special senior supplement consisting of 16 pages and containing graduates pictures, will be available to seniors for the price of $1. The books will be bound in gold cover, and although comparatively small in size, they will hold many memories for seniors. Included will be the results of the senior poll, the last wills and testaments, the senior directory, and the class history. In addition to numerous other features of interest to graduates, there will be a section devoted to the faculty and sports highlights.

Frosh Camp

Every student intending tto enter San Francisco State college next fall certainly will be interested in the Freshman Camp, which will be held this year at Asilomar September 6 through 8. Purpose of this camp is to help new freshmen get acquainted with other members of the class and to give them some idea of what is expected in college.

Mr. Brown, Miss Seaton, Mr. Behm, Mr. Carlson, and Mr. Lorenzato were the members participating on a special panel dealing with art and its relationship in the modern world, given for the benefit of students in the Little Theatre recently.

Last Thursday night members of the Spanish club attended their annual dinner, held this year at the Papagayo Room of Fairmont hotel.

Approximately 20 students will tour the campuses of San Jose State and Stanford on Monday, May 13, as a C.S.F. field trip. Among those expected to attend are Florence Verducci, Marilyn Delbon, Alda Caggiano, Karen Gerdes, Susan Knedel, Tom Cloutier, Dick Lair, Mary Morgan, Gladys Grassini and Ray Navarra.

Leveroni Keeps Tribe 9 In Race With 1-0 Shutout

Upset 3-2 by Hillsdale in a heart-pumper Friday, Ed Leveroni shouldered Jefferson's frisky Indians back into the wide-open North PAL title race Tuesday as he slammed home the winning run in a 1-0 masterpiece over Capuchino at Marchbanks.

Tuesday's thriller, won when Ed singled across Gary Ryan, moved the Tribe to within a half game of the tied leaders, South City and Hillsdale, both with 4-2 marks.

Real Mainstay

The Cap stint was Leveroni's second shutout of the campaign, second time he stroked home the clinching tally, and gave him a 3-2 loop hill record. An All-North PAL nominee for sure, Ed leads the league in strikeouts and his earned run average is around 1.50.

Leveroni, who sees more action than an electric fan at the equator, will toe the hill again this Friday when Steve Mezzera's nine travels to meet strong Carlmont. The Scots dimmed South City on Tuesday, and Hillsdale stormed to a tie for first with a nod over San Mateo.

Mr. Big (Leveroni) checked Don LeClergue's Mustangs on three hits—all singles—Tuesday at Marchbanks. Deadly defensive play by second baseman Ino Patron sniffed a few other Cap socks.

The Details

Barry Haanen opened Jeff's key seventh inning with a single to right. Tom Cloutier sacrificed him along, then Ryan and reawakened LeRoy Franzoia swatted singles. But Haanen was thrown out at home (on the latter foray) by the right fielder. Leveroni then stepped up and rammed in the game grabber.

Ryan, who finally is meeting the ball, got two of the Tribe's seven hits off footballer Gene Tagliaferri.

Errors by shortstop Mike Wedlake and outfielder Cloutier proved Jeff's downfall Friday as Hillsdale surprise the locals. Leveroni, coasting along on a three-hitter until then, succumbed via the boots, a freak triple and a single.

Brisbaner Again

Tribe's only two hits in that one were by catcher Bill Strassburger, the Brisbane kid who has a few major league scouts jotting down notes. Going into the Cap tilt, Bill was Mezzera's top sticker in loop wars with a .333 average (3 for 9).

Two Hillsdale errors and a pair of overthrows gave Jeff a 2-0 lead in the top of the seventh. Strassburger's single helped the spurt.

Pre-Cap game team stats supplied by Olin Craig and confirmed by the Peninsula Sportswriters association, showed Haanen and Patron chasing Strassburger at the plate with .287 marks. Jim Wilson was next with .250.

Sack Snatchers

RAM HORSEHIDERS REAL 'GAS-HOUSERS'

Win, lose or draw, no one dare say Dutch Meyer's Westmoor High baseballers lack hustle.

Last week provided a stirring example of this conviction.

Thursday, the Rams were outlasted 13-10 by Half Moon Bay in a give-and-taker on the Coast. Next day the locals romped back to shatter O'Connell High at Potrero Hill, 14-4.

How they did it is a tribute to prep baseball's many quirks.

Trackfest

Against HMB, the Rams stole 15 bases. Against O'Connell they thefted 25. In two games, that's 40 filched sacks—a feat even the boys at San Quentin couldn't match.

Last week's results gave the Meyer troops a 6-5 season mark. Not league play, but exhibitions. Next year Westmoor goes for keeps in North PAL action.

Dave Simmons' mound mark went to 4-4 Thursday in losing to the Coastsiders. He got rapped pretty hard—11 hits in all—three of them by John Bettencourt.

Trailing 10-3 in the fifth, the Rams boomed for a seven-run sixth to knot it. Roof fell in bottom of the frame as the HMBers splurged for three tallies and the ball game.

Marty Blasts

First sacker Marty Knedel led Westmoor's seven hit plate work with a single and double.

Wasn't much of a tilt, but it offered lots of exercise. Rams made six errors, Coast kids three.

Batterymates Ray "Carby" West and Bob Roller (pitcher and catcher), and skychaser-receiver Sid Swanson hogged laurels in the O'Connell triumph.

Chucking a six-hitter, West was at his best, fanning 10 batters in a row and winding up with 15 whiffs—a Westmoor record—over the seven innings.

Roller, a hot prospect, pumped two 300-foot, out-of-the-park homers in the 13-hit Ram barrage.

Sid Scintillates

Swanson, once a catcher, hit three-for-three and stole nine bases, tribute to his eagle eye and speed. Sid, a pretty fair gridder, too, leads the Ram club in sticking with a proud .505 average to date.

West's stint, giving him a 2-1 hill card, convinced Meyer he has two reliable hurlers—and a firm nucleus for next season.

Building for his successor, Meyer works the combinations. When Simmons toes the mound, Swanson takes over third and strong-armed West patrols short.

"We're a regular Gas House Gang," Meyer beamed. "My kids are green, but eager and learning, and we'll be tough in years to come."

The Rams were to face Washington's JV's this Wednesday, the South City reserves there today, and have two tilts next week. On Tuesday they clash with Half Moon Bay again, then on Friday comes Cubberley in a tussle at South City.

Drug Nine Blanks 3 Opponents

Superb pitching by Billy Ludwigsen, Barry Krohn, Billy Hix and Terry Christman gave the Daly City Drug horsehiders three wins last weekend—blanking their foes over 21 innings!

Ludwigsen spun a two-hitter at St. Cecelia's Saturday morning at Marchbanks, fanning nine batters. His own double and other two-basers by Mike O'Leary, Christman and Krohn were the big blows.

That afternoon, same diamond, Krohn set down OLPH on four hits, whiffing eight and walking none. The Creighton-Krohn kids of Tom Bournellis rattled 11 hits off DeVirgilio. Doubles by Krohn, O'Leary and Bill Hynes topped the attack.

Hix and Christman teamed to limit Dee's Associated of South City to one bingle in the third tilt. Billy yielded the blow in the first, but the batter was tossed out at second on a steal attempt. Christman came on in the third and hurled no-hit ball for the remaining five frames. Terry struck out eight of the enemy and didn't allow one of the visitors to reach second. And just for the record, not a single SC hitter got as far as third in the whole affair.

The Druggists return to Marchbanks this Saturday, meeting Mill Valley Boys' Club in a return game. First pitch is 2 o'clock. On Sunday, the locals face strong St. John's CYO in al 11 o'clock engagement.

Gas Softballers Knot Loop 4 Ways With 11-5 Victory

Petro-fired Westlake Richfield twisted the Westlake softball leadership into a four-way knot Sunday as the Gasmen spanked top-roosting Shopping Center, 11-5.

W'lake stayed in th scramble with a 15-9 slaughter over W'lake Joe's. And the fourth party for the throne, Val's Room, tripped Our Lady of Mercy's men, 9-7.

John Hood's three-hitter for Richfield topped Sunday's performances. Tom Kitchen hoodwinked Joe's nine from the hill.

With second half of loop play nearing the finish, games this Sunday will be fingernail sprayers.

Val's meets the Merchants at 11, the Gas House Gang battles the Lodgers at 1; and Joe's and OLM fight for the mattress at 3.

League champ will be determined in a two-out-of three affair between the Shoppers and eventual second round winner.

W'LAKE OPENS GIANT OUTDOOR SPORTS EXHIBIT

One of the largest outdoor exhibits ever to be shown in this area is under way at Westlake Shopping Center.

The first annual Westlake Boat, Vacation and Travel show features boats from small outboards to the larger, deluxe cruisers; small and large camp and house trailers; vacation ideas from the railroads, steamship lines and airlines, and one of the most elaborate outdoor camps ever erected in the open.

A complete outdoor camping scene, complete with tent, stove, table and chairs and sleeping bags and cots has been set up. All camping accessories will be displayed, while complete lines of sporting goods will be shown.

Extensive displays by the railroads, steamship and air lines have been placed in the various stores of the center, while a hand-made ship model is on display in the Westlake Insurance office.

As an added feature, free tickets may be obtained from any of the Westlake merchants for an outboard boat and trailer, an outboard motor, $20 per month for one year, complete camping tent outfit, a Las Vegas and Disneyland air vacation.

Ram-tales By Ron Bosc

(Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of weekly columns about Westmoor High, written by Ron Bosc, student body commissioner of publicity.)

Everyone had a "Rambling" good time Friday night as Westmoor's Junior class presented "Hobos Holiday," a come-as-the-bums-do dance in the school cafeteria.

Costuming was terrific as students arrived wearing just what they wanted to. The kids were dressed in bermudas, peddle pushers, old torn-up clothes, and you-name-it duds.

Highlight of the three-hour affair was crowning of king and queen. Bucky Hyers, garbed in ragged clothes, a board, and an "Eat At Joe's" sign, reigned as top male. His queenly partner was Peggy Jones decked out in lovely potato sacks and representing the Daly City dump. Marcie Jadinak led the coronation ceremonies.

Heading the dance committee were: Irene Bolton, decorations; Diane Impeartrice, tickets, and Irene Mann, refreshments. Help came from Mary Robertson, Miss Jones, Sylvia Gardner, Miss Jadinak, Barbara Geyer, Carol Lucas, Wanda Berry, Hizzoner Hyers, Barbara Fisher, Jackie "Pacifica" Willard, Dennis Hill, Rich Schweitzer, Lorena Lorenzen, and yours truly.

Thirteen Westmoor students who attended the recent Peninsula Athletic League conference at Hillsdale came home well satisfied. Fifteen schools were represented at this get-together to discuss and exchange ideas. Just about every topic connected with school affairs was aired in the series roundtable talks.

French club members have sent out letters in an attempt to establish correspondence with French students in the land of wine and bikinis. A scrapbook will be organized to mail to the French students, showing Westmoor and the French Clubbers. Sounds like a dandy idea.

STANFORD FROSH BEAT MEZZERANS ON THE FARM, 4-1

In a battle of Indian tribes, Stanford's freshmen staged one big rally Wednesday to dump Jefferson High in a nine-inning game down on the farm, 4-1.

Four-run second inning wrecked the Daly City kids as starter Jim Wilson issued four walks and a double. The Mezzerans had a 1-0 lead before the outburst.

The collegians used three hurlers and held the preps to five hits, two of them by Barry Haanen.

Gary Ryan relieved Wilson in the seventh.

Camp Fire Council Adds Miss Barricks

Miss Claire Barricks, new executive director of the Peninsula Camp Fire Council, was given an enthusiastic welcome by the North Peninsula Leaders Association at their recent monthly meeting.

Miss Barricks brings a wealth of Camp Fire experience to her new position. She discussed duties of an executive director and of further expanding the Camp Fire program on the peninsula, and also commented "on the wonderful response to the Camp Fire program in the short time that I have been here."

Miss Barricks most recent assignment was in Dallas, Texas, with the National field Operations Staff. Previously, she has served as executive director in Corpus Christi, Portland, and in Oakland.

Delucchi, Magee Splash In PAL Finals Friday

Breaststroker Phil Delucchi and diver Bill Magee will be out to salvage Jeff High glory in the PAL swimming championships this Friday afternoon at Capuchino.

Delucchi was the lone survivor last week among the nine Indians who plunged in the trials. Magee didn't compete because there are no trials in the diving category.

Phil gained a showdown berth in the varsity finale by taking fifth in the 100-yard breaststroke. He failed to qualify in his other specialty, the individual medley.

Delucchi did impress Coach Joe McGrath, however, since he beat out Carlmont's Collett, who previously decisioned him in the breaststroke.

Phil has a fierce task Friday. He'll be shooting for the following finishers in the trials: Al Davis, Palo Alto; O'Donaghue, Menlo-Atherton; Baer, Palo Alto, and Lorton, Menlo-Atherton. Davis broke the PAL record for the medley in the trials.

Paly, Menlo - Atherton and Sequoia, the perennial powers, dominated the semis, and figure to battle for titles in all three divisions this week.

McGrath's B relay team grabbed a first last week, but were nullified because they jumped the gun.

Winners in Friday's PAL meet advance to the Northern California finals May 10 and 11.

Ram Yearlings Lose To Knights; Nip Riordan, 7-6

Hillsdale erupted for seven runs in the last two innings Friday to deal Westmoor's Frosh-Sophs a 9-5 lacing at Marchbanks.

The defeat left the Rams 1-4 in North PAL standings as they entered Tuesday's games with Capuchino and looked to Friday's home tilt with Carlmont.

The Knights pounded 11 hits off Bob Goodwin Friday and took advantage of three Westmoor miscues. Only five hits came off Ram bats, two by third baseman Ross Holmgren. Dick Reese, Greenwood and Jim Heick spanked singles.

Joining forces with the Westmoor jayvees, the Ram Frosh-Sophs squeaked by Riordan's JV's early this week at Jefferson, 7-6.

The visitors went ahead 6-2 in the top of the seventh, but the Rod Losberger-Bryan Van Alstyne forces rallied for five tallies in their half of the frame.

Holmgren's two - run double with the bases jammed, Heick's likewise two-baser to left-center, and Dougherty's long fly, bringing in Heick, marked the clutch effort.

Reese scattered seven hits in notching the win. The Rams made the most of five bingles, but committed nine errors, thus the close outcome.

Westmoor's jayvees and Riordan tangle again this Thursday in San Francisco.

Johnson, Hix Hurl Broadmoor A's To Another Win, 39-0

Ron Johnson and Bruce Hix teamed Saturday to hurl the Broadmoor A softball kids to a 39-0 whitewash over Daly City's 63 A's.

Ron and Bruce both fanned six batters and were backed by hefty stroking at the plate. Young Hix was the pride and joy, with a homer, three doubles and a single. Another four-master came off the wood of Alan Contreras. Every batter in the B'moor lineup dented the hit column.

Losing chucker Westphal did not do too badly despite the landslide.

The lads of Peston Hix are idle this weekend in West Of Twin Peaks action. Two weeks ago, they were rained out.

Daly City Policemen Set Pistol Tourney

Daly City police department will stage its fourth annual pistol championships on May 26 at 10 a.m., at Ottoboni's shooting range in Colma.

Chief Roland Petrocchi has plenty of sharpshooters, so a few marks may tumble.

Phil Fair Tosses Westmoor Win, 5-1

Five-hit hurling of Phil Fair and two hits by Jim Heick paced the Westmoor Frosh-Sophs to a surprise 5-1 win over Capuchino Tuesday at San Bruno.

The Mustang tally came in the fourth after the Rams had taken a 3-0 lead.

NPAL SHOWDOWN

Jeff Cinderclads Peppy For Finals

Satisfied with Tuesday's North PAL trials at Burlingame, Jeff track and field boss Bob Watt is at peak hopefulness as his Tribe thinclads return to the same oval this Friday for the finals.

More than a handful of Indians qualified for the climax, and are prepared for lung-busting efforts in the showdown.

Junior Sonny Martinez, who owns a 10-flat 100, pulled a muscle Tuesday, but still managed seconds in the century and 220 sprints. Martinez ran "easy" in the furlong, due to the mishap, and should be okey tomorrow. He was only inches away from Blingum's Shelberg and outlasted highly-touted Bob Devincenzi of San Mateo, who took third. Wind hampered times throughout the afternoon.

Ler Wins

In the quarter mile, Jeff soph Len Lamendola was first in his heat, with Dan Miceli a strong second. George Bullwinkle placed in another 440 bracket, so all three are tuned for the big meet.

Andy Estigo and Dave Calloway rolled to seconds in 880 heats, making Watt's optimism further justified.

Varsity field eventers don't compete until tomorrow.

Vaulter Jeff Chase and weight man Jim Farley are ready to extend themselves.

Jeff's B's moved handsomely Tuesday. Carl Mecchi qualified with a second place shot toss of 42-11. Al Davila, in the 660, and soph stan Felix Valdez, in the 1320, both registered firsts in their heats.

Art Pollard gained third in the broad jump, with a leap of 19-7½ (his best), and got up for second in the 75 dash.

The Indian B relay team ran third to enter Friday's decider.

C's Unload

Watt's C's didn't fare badly. John Margaroni took third in both sprints and Harton stayed in business with a fourth in his 75-dash heat.

Gordy Tydingco and Harvey Marston each finished second in the hurdles. Gordy tied for third with a 5-1 high jump, wile Marston earned fifth in the broad jump.

Gordon Kennedy boomed the shot 43-3 (his topper), and the C relay unit wound up second in a dead heat affair won by South City.

PAL finals come a week from Saturday at Stanford.

VALDEZ SPARKS INJUN VICTORY IN RELAY MEET

"Quite pleased" was Coach Bob Watt's sizeup after his Jeff trackmen returned from a commendable performance Saturday in the annual Martinez Relays.

The Indians scored only one first—but it was a whopper. Foursome of Dave Calloway, Al Davila, Andy Estigoy and anchor ace Felix Valdez grabbed the two-mile relay in a thumping finish.

Behind most of the way, it took a sensational last-turn burst by soph Valdez to nip Washington of SF at the wire.

Watt's crew of Bill Martin, Jeff Chase, Boyd Hillyer and Jim Farley got fourth in the discuss relay, compiling 466 feet to Lincoln of SF's winning 533, paced by sparkling Mike Lewis.

Using the same unit, except that Carl Mecchi took Chase's place, Jeff grabbed fifth in the shot put relay, missing fourth and team points by a whisker.

Watt's 880 and mile relay aggregations of Len Lamendola, George Bullwinkel, Dan Miceli and Sonny "The Streak" Martinez, finished out of the running.

TOUGH FIGHT, MA!

Ram Faculty 'Hackers' Putt Past Varsity, 3-2

Westmoor High's faculty hackers cranked up their muscles Tuesday afternoon and perspired to a 3-2 victory over the Ram varsity golf team at Lake Merced.

Principal Glenn South, the old Indian warrior, led the profs with a win over young Jim Garrison.

Also prevailing for the oldsters were Frank Barrows, decisioning Jim Roman, and Ram link coach Dick Coltrell, downing Sam Malta.

Paratrooper Tony Giammona, Westmoor P. E. boss, lost his scrap with Don Hendricks. And Ben Snyder, the other degree toter, failed to beat Mark Fledderjohn.

Dad Barrows had low score in the friendly fuss, posting an 82. Coltrell and Fledderjohn were next with 86s.

Fledderjohn, lone soph on the Rams' frosh-dominated squad, is a comer on the greens.

Only other previous outing for the Westmoor linksmen was a forfeit win over Jeff.

'Men Of Note' Plan 5th Annual Concert

San Francisco's most distinctive male chorus, "Men of Note," are making final plans for their fifth Anniversary concert.

According to Jack Carli, president, rehearsals for this event are well under way. The group will sing a variety of numbers to suit all tastes, and from all appearances, everyone who attends is in store for a most enjoyable evening.

The concert will be held at the Abraham Lincoln High school, 2162 24th avenue, San Francisco, on Saturday, June 8.

More information on the big affair will be included in future issues of THE RECORD.

P.A.L. MANAGERS AUTHORIZE SPRING FOOTBALL DRILLS

Board of managers of the newly hatched Peninsula Athletic League last week approved loop-wide spring football practice — "limited to 10 hours of informal, non-contact workouts during the last three weeks of the semester."

Effective this spring, the new plan long has been advocated by coaches in both divisions in order to better prepare gridders for the long campaign, during which "learning" time is mighty scarce.

Brisbaners Hurt In Auto Accident

Two Brisbane youngsters were hospitalized Tuesday when the auto in which they were riding collided with another vehicle on the Army street approach to the freeway.

Carol Mozzetti, 12, was confined at St. Francis hospital for treatment of facial injuries, while Kathy Schmidt, 8, granddaughter of the driver, suffered concussion and head cuts and is at Children's hospital.

Driver of the vehicle, Floyd Scott, who was bringing the girls home from school, received a leg injury but was not hospitalized.

Carol Mozzetti's 10-year-old sister, Judy, escaped uninjured.

Guisti 'Cools' Mattos As Tribe Golfers Win

Jefferson's revived golfers, set afire by blistering Wayne Guisti, stomped Keith Mattos and his Hillsdale mates, 12½-18½, Tuesday in a North PAL battle on the Lake Merced course.

Guisti, who Coach Mike Orlich believes will take All-PAL honors, shaded Mattos, Northern Cal junior champ, in a blazing 6 to 5 duel.

Duo of Guisti and Al Harris swept nine of the Tribe points in the tussle. Vic Shannon accounted for three points, and Dave Scatena completed the picture with ½ point.

Even on league books with a 2-2 mark, Orlich's swingers host title-headed Capuchino next Tuesday at Lake Merced. This is the big one for the Tribe, with the South City scrap ending loop play on May 14, also here.

Guisti's performance Tuesday widened Orlich's ever-present smile. In the past six or seven years, the coach has sent at least six Indians to medalist play in the PAL finals. Guisti, perked by his win over Mattos, could go all the way.

• Jeff losses were to Blingum and San Mateo. Their first victory came over Carlmont.
